

Del Vallo Construction

This is an open letter to anyone thinking of purchasing a house by The Del Vallo Co. My wife and I looked at quite a few sites and talked to a few builders none were as patient and helpful as Frank, Joe, Frank jr. and Anthony. We had heard all the horror stories about homebuilding and were quite pleased by the way everything was handled by everyone involved. In the end Del Vallo did not build us a house, what they did build was a place we are more than happy to call "Home". I know that it was not an inexpensive endeavor to begin with but in this age of not getting what one seems to pay for thank all of you at Del Vallo for seeing to it that This time around we did get our monies worth and then some. Thanks Frank, Joe, Frank jr, and Anthony .

Sincerely
The Grosshans family
